

Characters

- Characters are the individuals in your story.
- It's important to describe the characters in your story clearly so your reader can imagine who the story is about and what the characters are like.
- Think of a character you would like to include in a story. It can be anyone – use your imagination – a boy or girl, an imaginary creature, a pet, an old lady or a young person from anywhere at all!